

I am deeply disturbed by Sinclair's attempts to force local stations to air the anti-Kerry broadcast shortly before the election. This shows the dangers of media consolidation. A political stance by the national corporation leadership becomes the message of local stations.

It is wrong. It is a threat to democracy. Stop the media consolidation trend. And stop the meddling of Sinclair in politics.

Sincerely,

David M Schmidt